

I think that consumers should be protected from Marketing and having the right to call my home. It is my phone, my phone bill, and they should not be able to call me if I have requested that they do not